PHS Education:

Reaching Out in All Directions

On the pages of the 1968 Cardinal, the story of PHS' 77th year of education is written.

To the students, PHS stands for many things; studying, learning, making friends, and having a great deal of fun.

To some, PHS will be the end of their education, while others will further their educations in college.

It is the yearbook staff's sincere wish that no matter in what direction your education leads you, you may always return and relive your moments at PHS through this, the 1968 Cardinal.

The latest development at PHS is the recently completed football field.

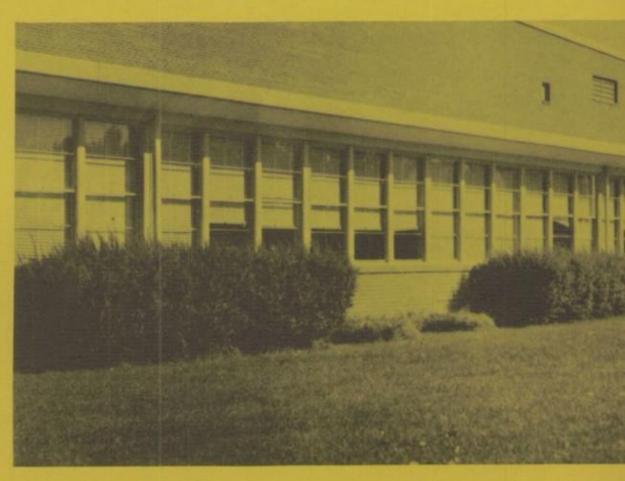

Plainville High School is well-cared for and modern. The surrounding lawn and shrubbery add to the pleasant appearance.

Excellent Facilities Enlighten

PHS is well-stocked with supplies for enhancing learning processes.

An everyday view for students is the flag and the front door of PHS

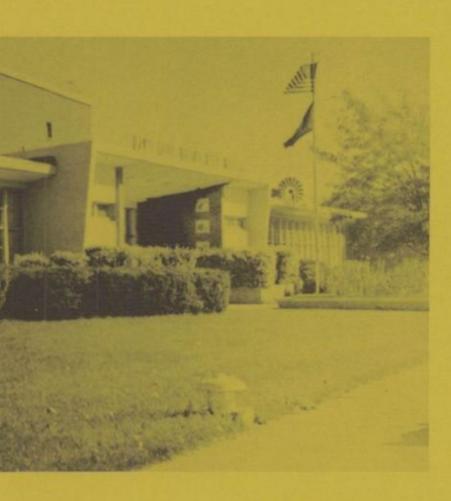

Designs on the building depict various phases of PHS education.

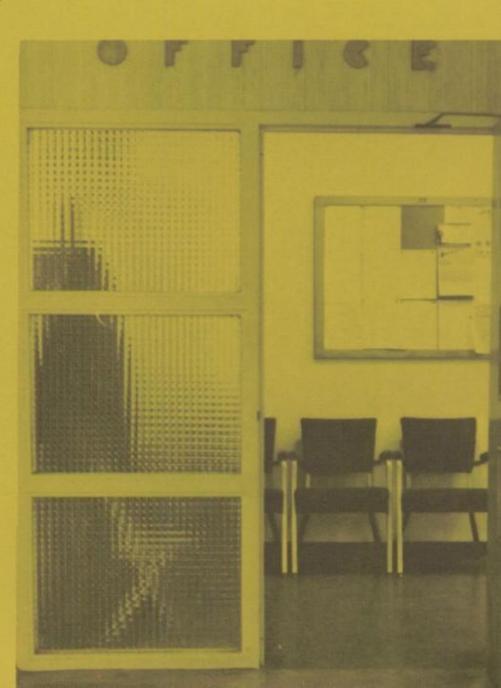

The equipment is in excellent condition and is kept up-to-date.

the Learning Process

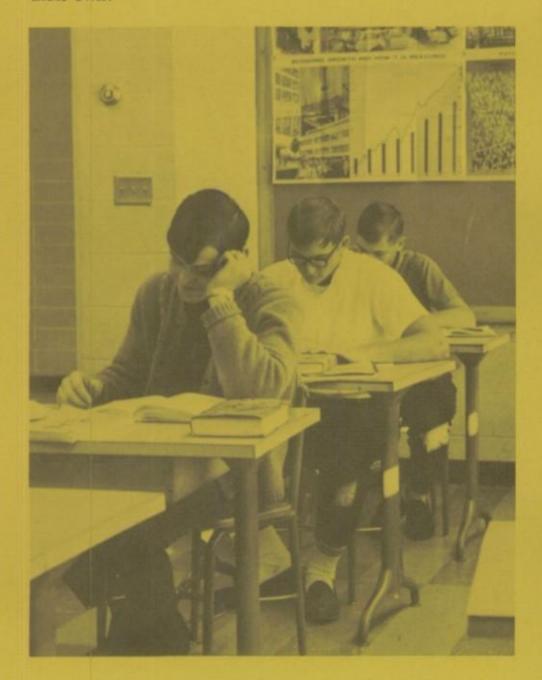

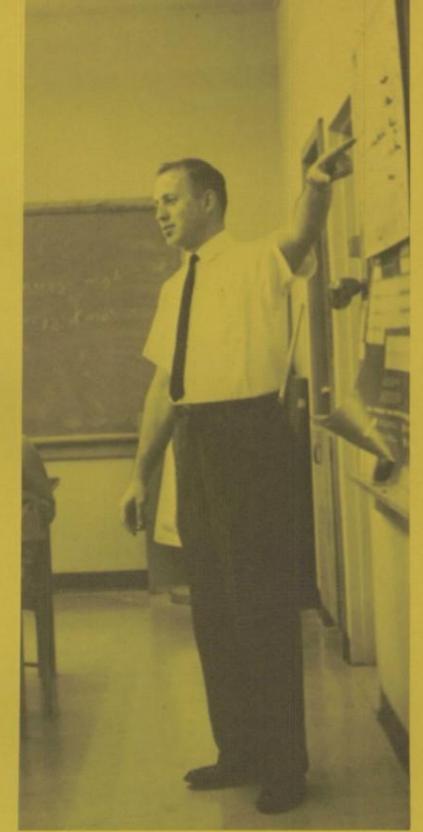

Without the office, the high school could not function in an organized manner.

Teachers aid learning with special audio-visual aids.

Students learn to study, and to dig out information on their own.

Education Reaches Students Through Classes

Education comes in many forms. PHSers gain manual skills as well as knowledge acquired from books.

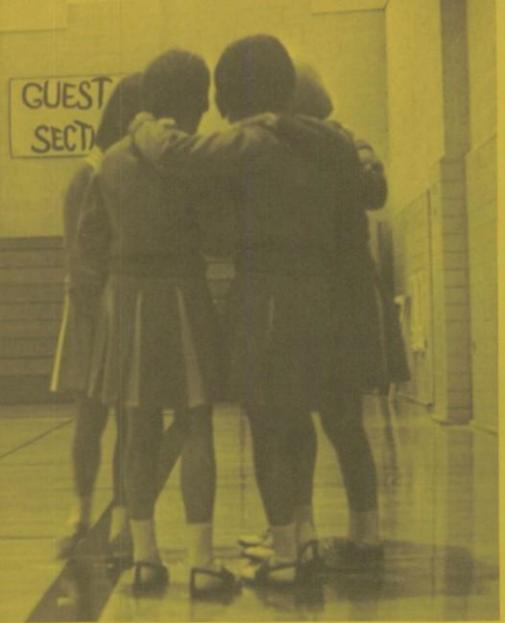

Instructors are friendly and willing to give extra help to those who require it.

Cooperation and unity are among the benefits of PHS education.

During class breaks, students get materials for the next class and have time to get settled before the next step in their education commences.

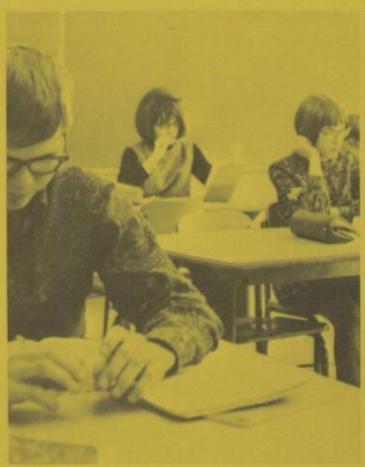

PHS students learned the meaning of unity by various activities.

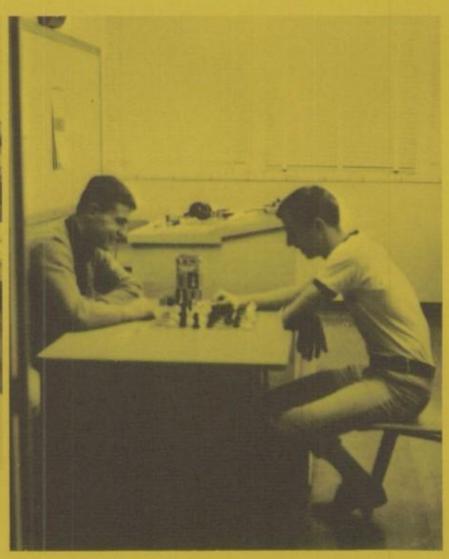

We Acquired

We learned to do things through cooperation with one another.

We made friends by communications in the classrooms.

Students engaged in friendly competition.

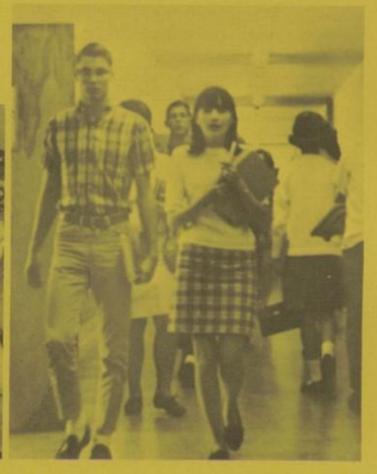

Friends and Unity Through

Education

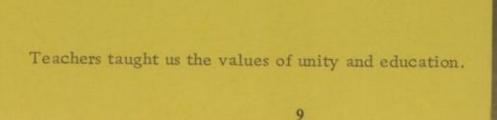

We expressed enthusiasm and pride for our school's teams.

Hallways were an excellent place to talk with friends.

The tables in study hall provided an atmosphere for both education and gab sessions.

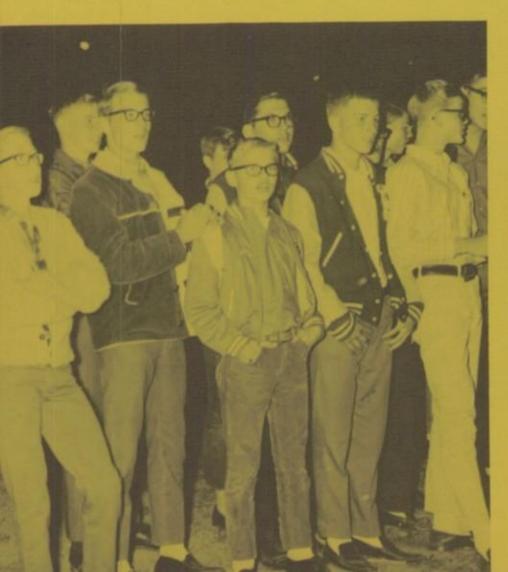

Blazing PHS letters symbolize the school spirit that dominated the 1967-68 year.

PHS Education Also Provides Fun and Spirit

Students turned out to cheer the Cardinals at the annual Homecoming Bonfire.

Surprises were part of the fun provided at PHS. Here Mardi Wood learns that she has been chosen 1967 Homecoming Queen.

ACADEMICS

Administrators Lead Faculty and Students

Mr. Nilwon Kraushaar has now completed his fourth year as District 270 superintendent. Adding to his responsibilities of carrying out school policies and reporting to the school board, he is responsible for having introduced the Youth Corps to our community.

Kraushaar received his B. A. degree in education and M. A. from Kansas State University at Manhattan.

Development and improvement of instruction and the maintenance of a strong extracurricular program are just a few of the problems confronting Mr. Al Hargrave who has served his fifth year as principal at PHS.

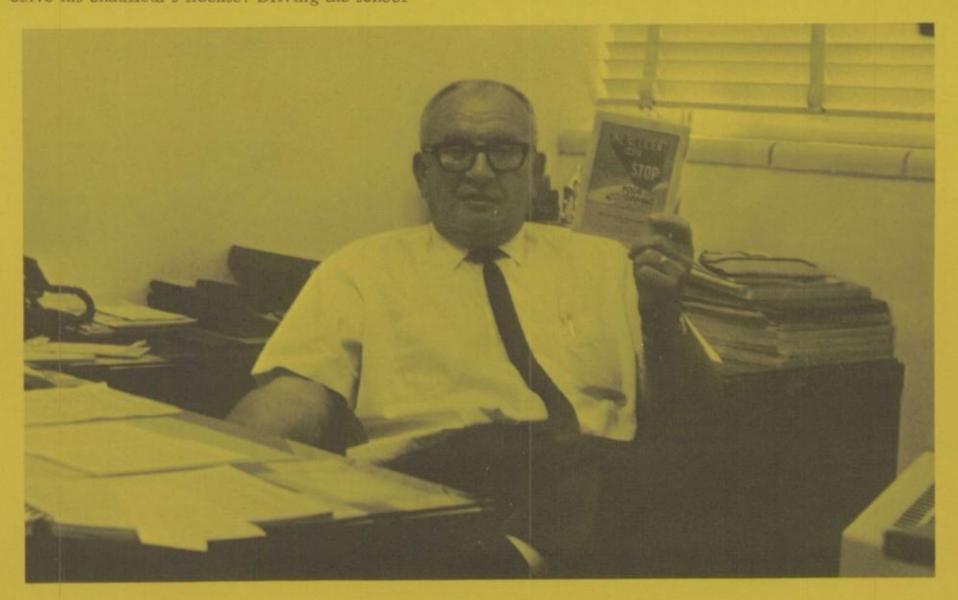

Hargrave received his B. A. degree at Kansas Wesleyan in Salina. His M. A. was conferred by Fort Hays Kansas State College.

bus on trips is another duty that Mr. Hargrave frequently undertakes.

School Board Governs PHS Policies

The Board of Education of District 270 is linked between community and school life. Making policies, training methods, new buildings, selecting school officials and faculty, and planning budgets are duties of the Board.

William P. Eckart, president, was president for six years and owns a local business. Roger Furgason, acting vice-president, owns an investor's service. Dale Roll, Laurence Hachmeister, Bert Taylor and Jack Mock are members of the Board.

Roll owns and operates his own tank service. Jack Mock is employed by Philips, while Bert Taylor is in partnership handling a service station, and Hachmeister operates the school bus service.

Appointed members of the Board are Paul Van Dyke, who serves as treasurer, and Mrs. Jean Ashley, secretary to the Superintendent, serves as clerk.

Mrs. Jean Ashley serves as clerk for the Board while Paul Van Dyke assumes the treasurer's duties.

Creativity Abounds in Channell's Classes

Mr. Bob Channell has completed his second year of teaching at PHS. He received his B. S. degree at Fort Hays Kansas State College where he was a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon social fraternity.

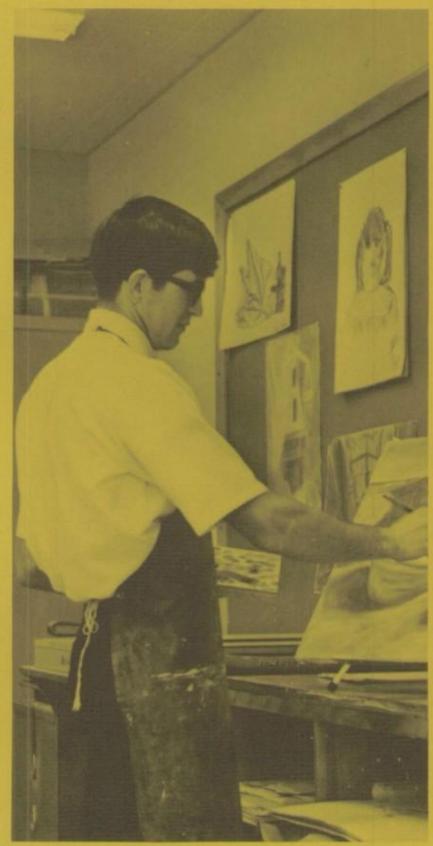

Mr. Channell taught seventh and eithth grade art in addition to Art I, II, and III in the high school. He was responsible for a student art show, and sponsored an art trip to Kansas City.

He was also sponsor of the junior class and a member of the local Jay-cees.

Channell, a graduate of Goodland High School, is presently working on his master's degree. He is married and has one child.

Mr. Channell helps Senior Sue Ashley with a project.

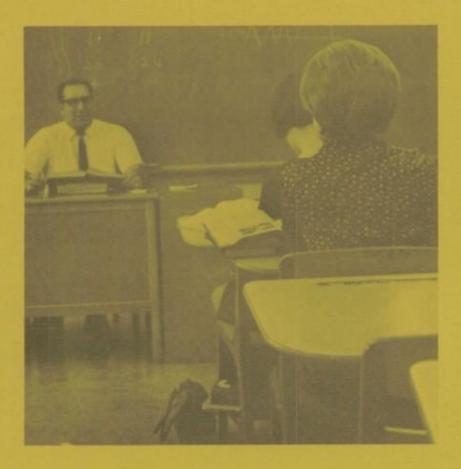

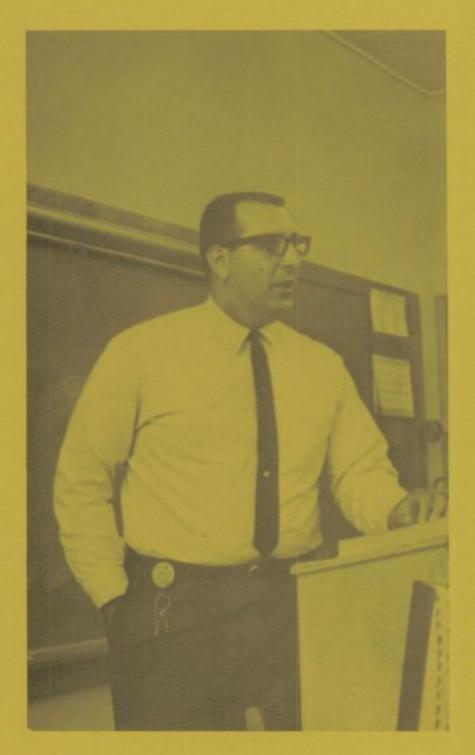

Mr. Channell works on a project of his own.

Preparing clay is part of ceramics activities.

Informal discussions are also a valuable part of Mr. Battitori's classes.

Mr. Battitori teaches history and physical education in addition to coaching.

Coach Teaches History, P.E.

John Battitori completed his fifth year of teaching at Plainville High School.

He is a graduate of Hutchinson Junior College and Wichita State University. He earned a bachelor of arts degree with a major in social science and a minor in physical education.

Involved in many activities, Battitori teaches American history and physical education for boys. He was also head football and wrestling coach.

Battitori sponsored P-Club and has served as president for the Jaycees.

He has been involved in many community activities and projects. He and his wife have four children.

Mr. Battitori lectures to one of his history classes.

English III students work diligently on a grammar assignment.

Miss Rouner spends most of her day in the library helping to expand the library's materials.

Eisiminger Has English II and III

Mrs. Carole Eisiminger, a graduate of Fort Hays State College, is completing her third year at Plainville High School.

She teaches three classes of English II and two classes of English III. She is also sponsor of the Campus Book Club.

Mrs. Eisiminger is the mother of two small children in addition to being a full-time teacher.

Mrs. Eisiminger helps sophomore Mona Becker with her English II.

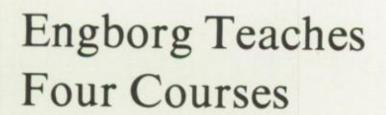

Library and English IV Are Rouner's Duties

Miss Alberta Rouner has taken the responsibility of librarian at Plainville High School. She teaches senior English in addition to this.

Miss Rouner formerly taught at Osborne, and has now completed her second year at Plainville.

Bookkeeping keeps junior and senior students busy.

Paul Engborg received his bachelor of science degree from McPherson College, and is completing his fifth year of teaching at Plainville High School.

Engborg teaches bookkeeping, sociology, economics, and Typing II. He is also assistant football and basketball coach.

Engborg is vice-president of the local Jaycees organization and is active in other activities of the community.

He has done much to organize the local teacher's association, TAD, which is in its second year.

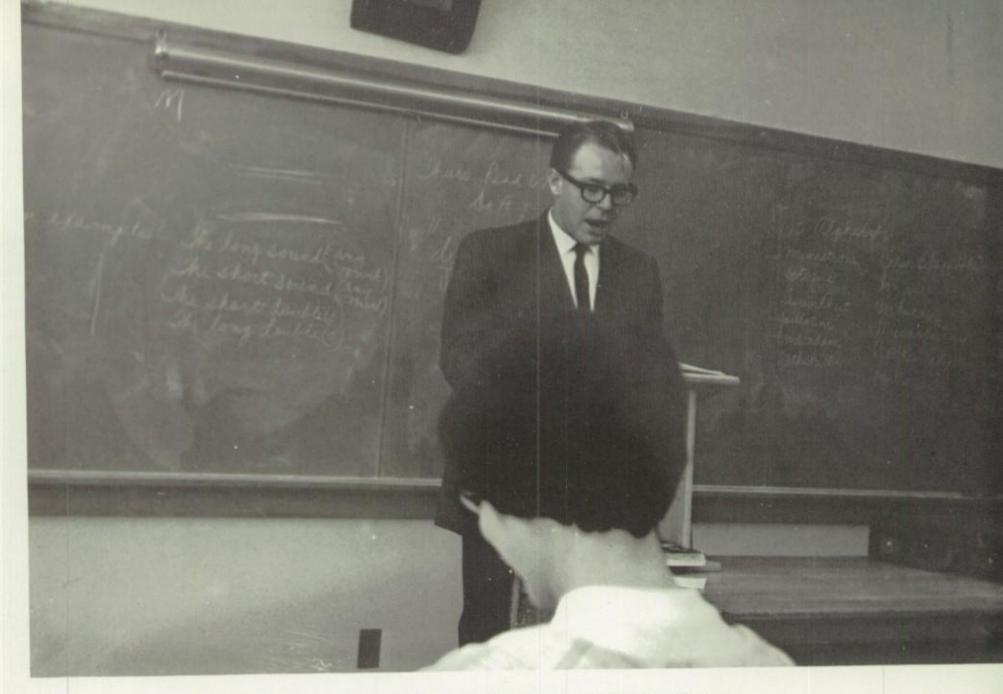

Engborg is married and has three children.

Lots of clatter is typical of typing classes. Juniors and seniors participate in Typing II.

Gordon Ensley lectures to one of his American history classes.

Ensley Conducts Government, Geography

Gordon Ensley has completed his second year of teaching at PHS. He taught geography required for sophomores opposite driver's education.

He also taught government which is required for seniors. His other duties included assisting with football, basketball and track.

Ensley holds a two-year association in arts degree which he received from Iola Junior College. He also has a bachelor of science degree from Kansas State Teacher's College, Emporia.

Geography students study maps to learn locations of various countries.

Forbes Directs PHS Publications

Miss Shari Forbes was the instructor for English I and advisor for the school yearbook and newspaper for the third year at PHS.

She received her A.B. in English at Fort Hays State College, and she is currently working on her M.A. at Fort Hays.

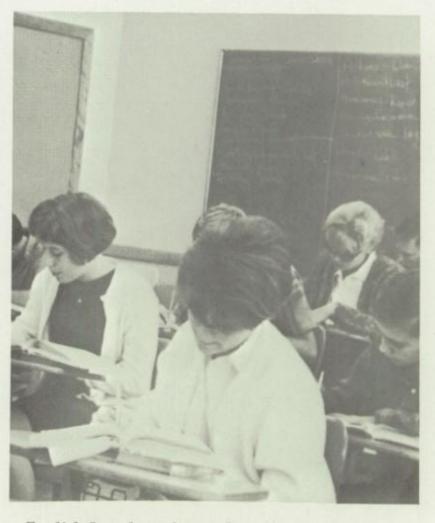

During the year she has been taking Saturday and night courses at the college. She hopes to complete her Master's Degree in the summer of 1968.

Miss Forbes' other duties at PHS include sponsoring students to the annual journalism workshop each June at Kansas State University in Manhattan.

Miss Forbes discusses yearbook layout plans with Assistant Editor, Kathie Ginther.

Cardinal Booster Editor, Dalene Roll, plans the next issue of the paper with the staff.

English I students learned to diagram sentences.

Projects Numerous in Vo. Ag., Metal Shop

Marvin Hachmeister has completed his tenth year as vocational agriculture instructor at Plainville High School.

He teaches Vocational Agriculture I, II, III, and IV, and Metal Shop. He is also sponsor of FFA.

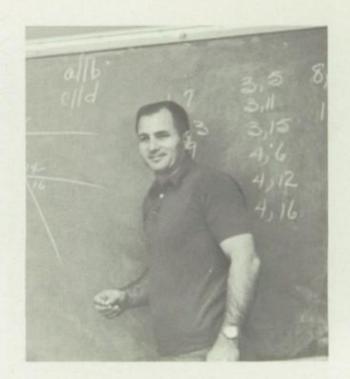

He received his bachelor of science degree and his master of science degree from Kansas State University. He taught two years prior to coming to Plainville.

During the year, Hachmeister sponsors the trips and activities undertaken by FFA. He also, with the help of FFA, organizes the Barnwarmer which is one of the highlights of each school year.

Marvin Hachmeister appears in his usual uniform for Metal Shop.

Gene Jaco teaches math and driver's education.

Freshmen learn mathematics procedures from Mr. Jaco

Jaco, Johnson Have Math, Phys. Ed.

Mrs. Gae Johnson supervises firsthour study hall.

Gene Jaco is general mathematics and driver's education instructor. He sponsored the junior class. A graduate of Fort Hays State College with a B. A. in physical education and industrial arts, he is married and has three children.

Mrs. Gae Johnson graduated from the College of Emporia with a B. A. Before coming to PHS to teach girls' physical education and sponsor pep club, Mrs. Johnson taught in Burton, Cottonwood Falls and Elmdale.

Freshmen girls learn sportsmanship and excercises from Mrs. Johnson's physical education classes.

Linda Williams, Pam Hugley, and Nancy Hancock take a rest while the band plays on.

Johnson, Meredith Direct Music Departments

Gene Johnson also had fifth hour study hall during his first year at PHS.

Lyle Meredith completed his first year as vocal instructor for the junior high and PHS.

Mixed chorus members anticipate the downbeat at the beginning of a song.

Mr. Meireis supervises junior Pam Roger's typing technique.

Meireis Teaches Business Courses

Warren Meireis is a graduate of Southwestern College of Winfield. He joined the PHS staff in 1966 after teaching five years at Frankfurt.

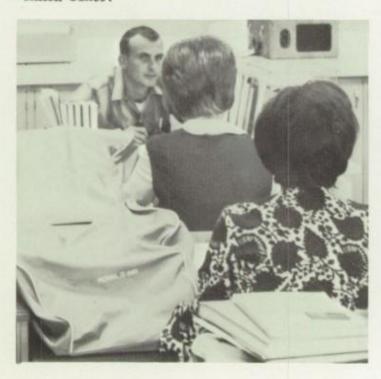

Meireis was an active participant in sports during college. He engaged in four years of track and cross-country, and played three years of basketball.

He has an A.B. in physical education and a minor in business. He teaches Typing I, shorthand, office practice and physical education. He also coached basketball and track and was assistant football coach and P-Club sponsor.

Juniors Paula Van Dyke, Denise Richmond, Steve Ruder and senior Steve Bard concentrate on a typing excercise.

Mr. Meireis dictates a letter to his short-hand class.

Freshmen participate in first hour physical education.

Students study Spanish language in separate recording booths which were installed two years ago.

La Barge Has Foreign Languages

Larry La Barge has completed his second year of teaching at PHS. He came here from Ellis High School, and is teaching classes in Latin and Spanish.

He received a degree in Spanish with a minor in Latin from Fort Hays Kansas State College, Hays.

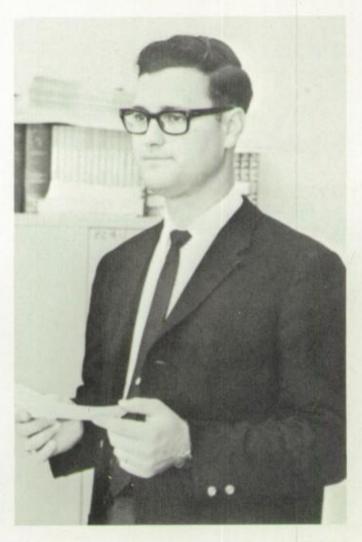

Mr. La Barge is also freshman class sponsor.

He is married and has one child.

Now is his third year of teaching,
Mr. La Barge is doing graduate work in Spanish at Fort Hays Kansas State College.

Jacquie Prickett concentrates on Latin conjugation problems.

Mr. La Barge dictates a test in Spanish.

Parker Guides Industrial Arts

Harry Parker ended his eighth year of teaching at Plainville High School. He graduated from Kansas State University, Manhattan, with a B.S. degree in industrial arts.

Mr. Parker teaches five classes of industrial arts. He also sponsored the annual industrial arts show held each spring in connection with the Fine Arts Show.

Mr. Parker is in charge of the concession stand at all home games.

He has offered night classes in industrial arts and has sold many of his own projects.

He has been engaged in a long-term project for several years, that of building a small plane.

Mr. Parker's classroom is always kept neat and up-to-date.

Mr. Parker shows Rodger Glick, Clarence Bullock and Perry Weis how to use one of the machines.

Back to the drawing board! Mr. Parker shows how to plan a future project.

Juniors and seniors take Speech II. Here they are learning how to give an extemporaneous speech.

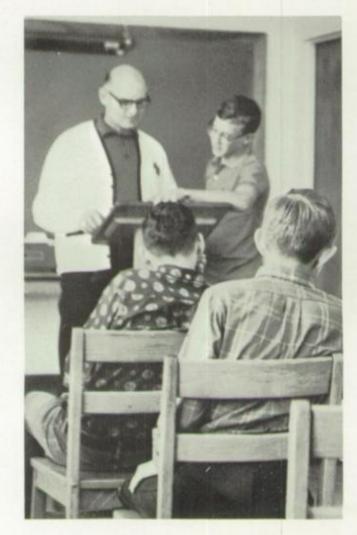

Freshman Linette Schmidt gives a speech before members of her Speech I class.

Schumacher Keeps Speech Lively

Nick J. Schumacher graduated from Fort Hays State with a B. S. in English and a minor in speech. He is presently working on his master's in secondary administration and speech.

This year completes his 25th year of teaching and his fifth year at PHS. His duties included Speech I and II and English III. He also directs the junior and senior plays.

Mr. Schumacher helps Kurt Glendening with a problem in Speech I.

Smrcka Teaches Science

Olen Smrcka has now completed his eighteenth year of teaching here at Plainville High School.

This year he taught courses in biology, chemistry and physiology.

Along with these three classes he was also vice-principal of PHS and sponsor of the senior class. As vice-principal it was his responsibility to take over the duties of Principal Al Hargrave in his absence.

Chemistry class performs a lab experiment.

Junior Tracey Andreson points out something of interest about the eye in physiology.

Experiments Common In Smrcka's Classes

Mr. Smrcka was graduated from Fort Hays State College with a bachelor of science degree in physical science. He has a major in biology and a minor in chemistry.

Smrcka came here in 1950 immediately after graduation.

In addition to his many other interests, Mr. Smrcka has served as assistant football coach and has refereed many games. He also owns a local business, The Plainville Dairy Queen.

Dissecting is a common experiment in biology. Here Sophomore Glenn Hartnett watches through the microscope as Marc Glendening and Doug Beiker dissect a worm. Other onlookers are Albert Plante and Roy Rudy.

Freshmen participate in a question-answer period in physical science.

Venters Returns For Second Year

Jim Venters has completed his second year of teaching at PHS. Mr. Venters taught physical science, geometry, and physics.

He received his A.B. at Fort Hays Kansas State College, and his M.S. at the University of Wyoming, in Laramie.

Mr. Venters, a graduate of PHS, taught five years at Ashland High School prior to coming to Plainville.

He has served on the salary schedule committee for the District 270 teachers Association. He was also a sponsor for the senior class of 1967-68.

He is married and has one child.

Sophomores study geometry.

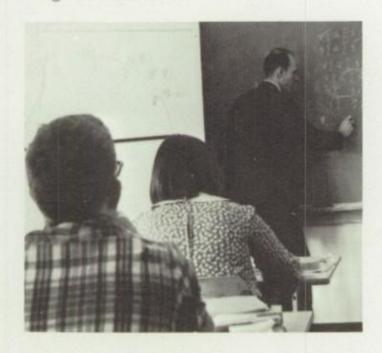

Jim Venters lectures to a math class.

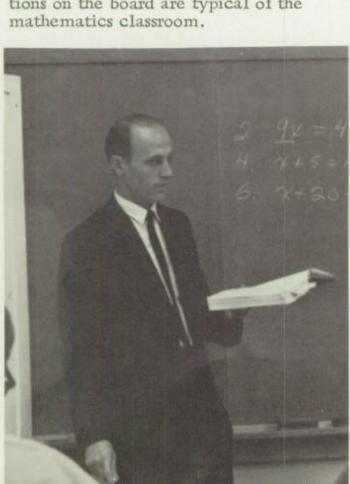

Seniors Mark Stahl, Kevin Adams, Steve Bard, Greg Mock, Newton Cates, Ken Conway, and Mike Rempe found Trigonometry to be challenging and perplexing at times.

Math Is Unruh's Specialty

Mr. Unruh works an algebra problem for Algebra I students.

Mr. Unruh, with book in hand and equations on the board are typical of the mathematics classroom.

Homer Unruh has completed his fifth year of teaching at PHS. His first year here, Mr. Unruh taught Driver's Education and General Math. The past four years he has taught Algebra I, Algebra II, and senior mathematics, which consists of trigonometry and calculus.

Mr. Unruh is sponsor of the sophomore class and also a sponsor of Computer Club.

Mr. Unruh received his B.S. from Fort Hays Kansas State College. He is married and has one child.

Mr. Unruh was influential in starting the Computer Club at PHS. The group makes trips to Fort Hays State College to study computer operations.

Juniors Mary Beth Unrein and Margene Keas are in deep thought over an Algebra II problem.

Miss Van Tuyl lends assistance to a perplexed student in sewing class.

Students cutting out patterns is a familiar scene in the Home Economics Room.

Van Tuyl Completes First Year Here

Miss Edna Mae Van Tuyl finished her first year at Plainville High School where she taught Home Economics I, II, and III. She also sponsored Future Homemakers of America.

She received her bachelor of science degree from Kansas State University and did graduate work at Kansas University and the College of Emporia.

Her former twenty-one years of teaching included one year at Cedar Point, two years at Hill City, seventeen years at Linn, and one yeat at Holyrood.

The Home Economics classes concentrate mainly on two areas: cooking and sewing. The students also study units on home management and child care.

Miss Van Tuyl supervises as freshman Libby Wilson stirs up a cake for cooking class.

Mrs. Ashley works in the Superintendents office at secretarial duties.

Mrs. Lyon is busy behind the desk in the high school office.

Counselor, Secretaries Aid Students

Mr. Harrington guides students in their school life.

These familiar faces were seen often around Plainville High School. They helped the school run efficiently and helped students throughout the days.

Mr. Elbert Harrington was the new counselor at PHS this year, filling in the absence of Mr. Williams, who resigned due to illness. Mr. Harrington graduated from Graceland College in Lamoni, Iowa. He received his B.A. degree there. In 1966 he received his M.S. degree at the University of Kansas. Mr. Harrington has taught one and a half years previous to his counseling at PHS.

The two secretaries worked very hard to meet the obligations the school presented them. Mrs. Ashley worked in the office of the superintendent and served as the Clerk of the School Board. Mrs. Lyon worked in the high school office and always met the students with a friendly smile. She also served as secretary for the Hi-Plains Teachers Credit Union.

PHS Employees Play Important Role

People behind the scenes also play an important part in school life.

Maintenance Engineer Scotty Reidel and his three student assistants as well as the bus drivers fill an important role.

Under the supervision of Mrs. Verna Hamblet, hot lunches are served every day to both grade and high school students.

Familiar faces around the halls after school each day were "Scotty's helpers." Frank Austin, Ed Rempe, Scotty Reidel, and Raymond Marcotte kept the school in tiptop shape.

Bus drivers played an important roll at PHS. They are Stanley Richmond, Laurence and June Hachmeister, Emery Ekey and Ray Welch.

ACTIVITIES

One Act Play

The one act play given this year was entitled "Infanta", an adaption of Oscar Wilde's story, directed by Nick Schumacher. The play was presented at the Oberlin Speech Clinic, the MCL Speech Contest at Plainville, and at the District Contest at Hill City.

This was a story of a lonely Spanish princess who was not allowed to play with other children. Her only playmate was LeBossu, a hunchbacked dwarf. He didn't realize that he was so hideous looking. Infanta fancied that she was in love with the dwarf. Her aunt, the Duchess, decides that she must marry Lord Severe. Though the young girl protests, her aunts domineering methods win out. Infanta is compelled to witness the awful tragedy of the dwarf's learning the pitiful truth of his ugliness. He dies from a broken heart. CAST: Infanta, Sheri Stewart; The Duchess, Sue Eckart; LeBossu, Paul Stagner; Lord Severe, Roger Oelschlaeger; Dorthea, Carol Moos.

Infanta, The Duchess, Lord Severe, and Dorthea witness the tragic death of LeBossu.

Cardinal Staff Plans Annual

Eighteen seniors made up the staff for the 1968 Cardinal, with Miss Shari Forbes as advisor.

Three members of the staff were sent to Manhattan to attend the K-State Journalism Workshop where the blue prints for the '68 Cardinal began. A workshop in Great Bend was also attended by five members of the staff. These camps were of great help to the staff in composing this yearbook.

The yearbook class met third hour where they spent their time writing copy and cutting and pasting pictures in order to meet the deadlines.

The yearbook sales began October 23, with the yearbook class giving a number of short skits to the student body during activity period.

Seniors Publish Cardinal Booster

The Cardinal Booster was published with the combined efforts of fourteen people this year. Dalene Roll was Managing Editor and Miss Shari Forbes served as advisor for the Booster Staff.

The Booster was published once a month by the staff, which met every first hour. The students anxiously awaited the arrival of the Booster every month and one of the highlights of the Booster was seeing who had the honor of being chosen Booster Girl of the month.

Editor Dalene Roll attended the KSU journalism workshop in Manhattan last summer, where she learned how a newspaper was published. The experience she gained here plus the supervision of Miss Forbes helped the staff greatly.

The Booster staff proudly examines the paper they have produced.

The main responsibility of Student Council representatives is to serve PHS to the best of their knowledge and abilities and to represent their fellow students as a governing body.

The Student Council plans and organizes school assemblies. This organization attends to social and academic affairs through various committees.

The STUCO is composed of fourteen members, which consists of a president and vice-president elected by the student body and representatives from different organizations and classes. The council is under the guidance of Don Williams, and they hold their meetings once a month.

One of the most impressive scenes in the musical was the wedding ceremony in which nearly the entire cast was represented.

'Sound Of Music' Presented At PHS

The PHS Fine Arts Department presented its production of Rogers and Hammerstein's "The Sound of Music" during the month of October. This was the second musical presented in the history of PHS. The first was "Swinging High" in 1966.

Both performances of the musical story, set in Austria early in 1938, of Maria Rainier and the von Trapp family, kept the audiences filled with excitement and pleasure.

Lyle Meredith, vocal instructor, directed the show with the assistance of Nick Schumacher, speech instructor. Gene Johnson, band instructor, conducted the 18-piece orchestra.

Other instructors helping with the show were Mrs. Gae Johnson, choreography, Harry Parker, industrial arts, and Robert Channell, art.

Captain von Trapp (Byron Beal) sings a love song to Maria Rainier (Sheri Stewart).

Enthusiasm

Gene Johnson finished his first year as band instructor at PHS and led the band through a full schedule.

This year's marching band provided entertainment during halftime at home football games while the Pep Band played at away games and home basketball games.

During September the band played at the State Fair in Hutchinson and in October attended Band Day at K-State. Later in the year all band members attended the MGL Clinic in Phillipsubrg, and competed at the State Music Festival at Hays.

Concert Band entertained the public with a Christmas Concert, the Fine Arts Concert, and a Spring Concert. The Swing Band provided music for the production of "The Sound of Music" and attended a jazz clinic at College of Emporia in Emporia.

At Plainville High

The Plainville High Chapter of Future Homemakers of America strived to maintain its proud position as an Honor Chapter this year.

Under the leadership of President Mardi Wood and the guidance of Miss Edna Mae Van Tuyl, sponsor, the FHA achieved many goals.

"Who Controls Your Strings" was the theme for the District B meeting which the girls attended in Great Bend.

Club activities included participation in local cancer and cerebral palsy drives, Christmas caroling, and an ice cream social. The chapter was also responsible for the Sweetheart Ball.

Each year the Plainville chapter is wellrepresented at the State Conventions in Topeka. Only those members with the highest evaluation in degrees are eligible to attend, making the competition stiff for all who wish to participate. Vice-president Pam Rogers and President Mardi Wood discuss plans for the next FHA meeting.

FFA Officers for 1967-68 were: Rick Boucher, secretary; Don Klaus, vice-president; David Comeau, sentinel; Ken Conway, president; Mike Rempe, reporter; Doug Beiker, treasurer; and Marvin Hachmeister, sponsor.

Seven Lead Future Farmers

Under the leadership of Ken Conway, FFA president, the organization developed new and better ideas for future farm activities.

Some of the activities sponsored by FFA included the afternoon assembly in which the Barnwarmer candidates competed. FFA was also responsible for the annual Barnwarmer dance at which Patsy Brin was named Barnwarmer Queen. Patsy was a senior and head cheerleader.

The FFA boys again honored their parents at the Parent-Son Banquet held in the school cafeteria.

The yearly pancake and sausage feed was once again the chief money-making project for the club.

Senior Gayle Gardner showed her skill at milking a cow during the annual Barnwarmer events.

FFA Sponsors Annual Barnwarmer

Sacking pigs was another event in the Barn-warmer assembly sponsored by FFA.

To Manhattan and Kansas City

The P-Club, sponsored by John Battitori and Warren Meireis, is composed of the lettermen of all the Plainville High School varsity sports. The sports include football, coached by John
Battitori; basketball, coached by Warren
Meireis; wrestling, coached by John
Battitori; track, coached by Warren
Meireis; and golf, coached by Lyle
Meredith.

This year's P-Club had thirty-two members and was headed by President Rich High.

P-Club took its annual trip to Kansas City again this year. During the week-end of November 18 and 19, the group attended the K-State-Colorado game, and also the battle between the K.C. Chiefs and the San Diego Chargers.

Later in the year, the club sponsored the "Battle of the Sexes," a contest between the most intelligent boy and girl from each class. P-Club was also responsible for the annual Chicken Supper for members and faculty members. The organization also sends boys to FCA camp during the summer. FCA is sponsored by Gene Jaco.

The money for the activities of P-Club was earned by the members during the two work days and the selling of pens which had the school name and basketball schedule printed on them.

Spirit

The Plainville High School Pep Club helped sponsor the 1967 Homecoming. "Stairway to the Stars" provided the theme for Queen Mardi Wood and her attendants, Gayle Gardner, Patsy Brin, Ann Ruder, and Paula VanDyke.

The Pep Club also sponsored the Snoball, with the theme being "Fantasy on Ice". The members nominated Rich High, Greg Mock, Rick Boucher, Paul Stagner and Dennis Brungardt as candidates.

An annual candy sale was the pep club's money-making project which supplied the funds for the 1967-1968 activities.

The members, under the guidance of the President and the cheerleaders, worked hard to make this year the best by showing their enthusiasm to all the Plainville athletic teams.

Wrestling cheerleaders were Susan Page, Mardi Wood and Becky Kerns.

A-Team Cheerleaders included Gayle Gardner, Paula Van Dyke, Annie Ruder, Dianne Stalnaker and Patsy Brin, head cheerleader.

Cheerleaders Boost Players' Morale

Boosting the pep and morale of the student body as well as that of the team, were the Varsity and B-Team Cheer-leaders. The Varsity Cheerleaders are elected each spring by the student body, and the B-Team cheerleaders are chosen in the fall by the Pep Club.

Varsity Cheerleaders attended the Ottawa University of Cheerleading where they received a third place ribbon in competition. A new idea which was derived from the camp was the spirit stick which created more school enthusiasm as the year progressed.

New at PHS this year was the election of wrestling cheerleaders. They were chosen in November by the wrestling squad. Chosen were Mardi Wood, senior, and Susan Page and Becky Kerns, both juniors.

B-Team Cheerleaders were Melanie Page, Carolyn Ross, head cheerleader, and Linda High.

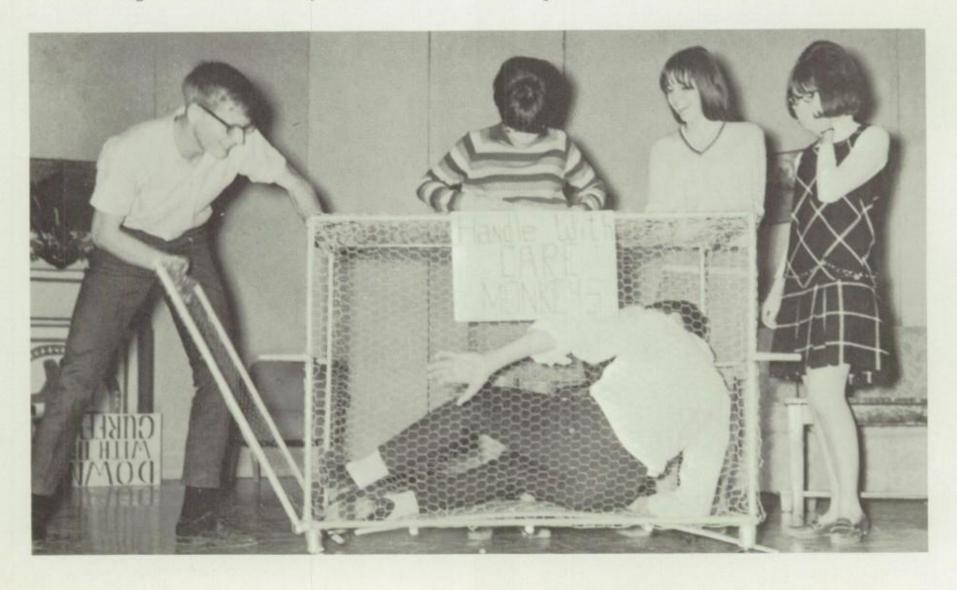

Junior Class Enacts 'Stop The Wedding'

This year's junior play, entitled "Stop the Wedding," was written by Frank A. Magary and directed by Nick J. Schumacher, speech instructor.

The cast was as follows: Mayor Wilson,
Roger Glick; Bill Jones, Kirk Harrison; Verna
Wilson, Judy Demanett; Lorie Wilson, Mary
Smrcka; Clarence, Mike Adams; Maggie Jones,
Karen Axelson; Kristin Jones, Paula Van Dyke;
Mary Beth Unrein; Oscar, Larry Prout; Dean
Dibble, Trudy Rupp; Captain Henderson, Raymond Marcotte; Snow-in-the-Face, Mary Moeder; Minister, Mike Toelkes; Mrs.
Cooney, Lydia Denniston; Police Officer, Ed
Rempe; Marine, Ken Feldkamp; Navy Lietttenant, Frank Austin; Fireman, Rick Pywell;
Bridesmaids, Pam Schumacher, Harriette
Horner, Cindy Braun and Vicki Wise.

ABOVE: Snow-in-the-Face listens attentively to Bill Jones, the leading male character. BELOW: Maggie portrays a scene which helped win Karen Axelson the Best Actress Award.

Oscar cages Clarence as Lorie, Susan and Pat watch. The prank was one of the major scenes in the play.

Captain and Kate Keller restrain Helen from toppling her baby sister out of the carriage.

The entire cast stops for a breather.

Annie Sullivan wrestles Helen back to the table to eat dinner.

Seniors Present "Miracle Worker"

The senior class presented "The Miracle Worker," a drama by William Gibson and directed by Nick J. Schumacher, speech instructor, March 22 in the high school auditorium.

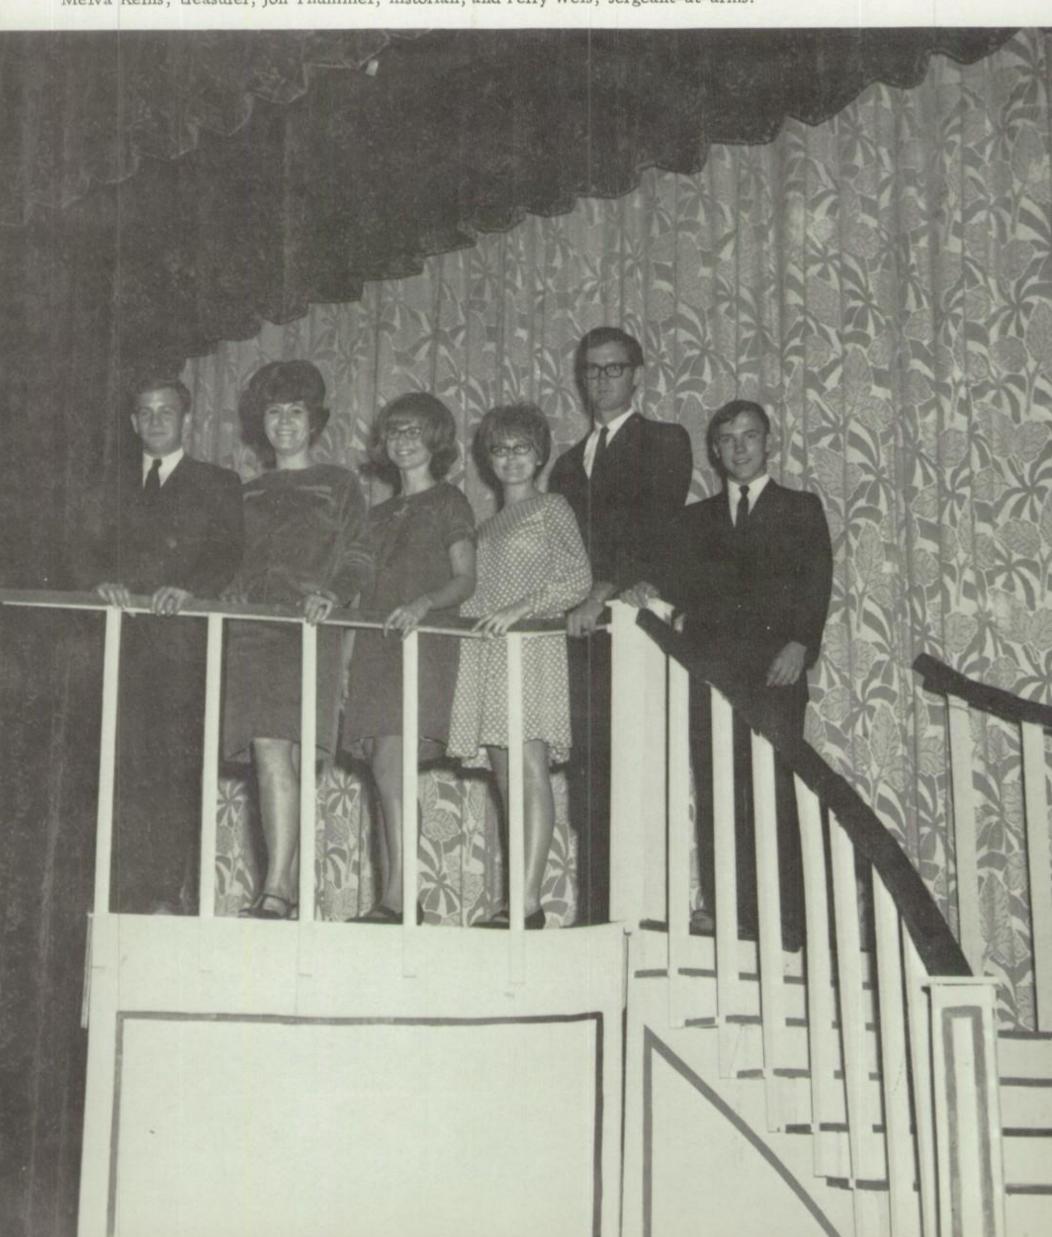

"The Miracle Worker" is principally concerned with the emotional relationship between the lonely teacher and her blind charge. This stirring dramatization of the real-life story of Helen Keller is one of the most successful and warmly admired displays of the modern stage. Helen Keller was, of course, blind and mute, and nobody knows what her ultimate fate might have been had she not providentially come under the care of Annie Sullivan, the Irish girl who had been born blind herself and was reluctantly hired by the agonized parents of the unfortunate little girl.

The following were the cast: Doctor,
Ken Conway; Kate, Gayle Gardner, Keller,
Paul Stagner; Helen, Delma Marston;
Martha, Kim Thomas; Percy, Dennis
Brungardt; Aunt Ev, Kathie Ginther; James,
Steve Bard; Anagnos, Rick Boucher; Annie
Sullivan, Sue Eckart; Viney, Carol Moos;
Servant, Rita Sell; blind girls, Judy Hake,
Judy Sumner, Sandy Sims, and Shirley
Rotach. Karen Bice was Student Director.

CLASSES

Officers Plan Senior Projects

Officers for the class of '68 were: Paul Stagner, president; Gayle Gardner, vice-president; Mardi Wood, secretary; Melva Kerns, treasurer; Jon Thummel, historian; and Perry Weis, sergeant-at-arms.

Seniors At Top Of PHS Stairs

At the top of the stairs we find the class of '68. They have just reached one of the most important steps on the road to success.

Some of the events that highlighted 1968 for the seniors were the choosing of caps, gowns, and graduation announcements, recieving senior pictures, the senior play, the annual junior-senior prom, and most important, graduation.

For their graduation, the seniors chose silver caps and gowns, and announcements displaying the class colors, lavender and silver. Their flower is the orchid, and their class motto is "Learning is the foundation of knowledge".

Upon leaving PHS, some of the seniors will further their education, some will be working, some will join the Armed Forces, and still others will be entering married life.

Now, as the seniors move onward, they will treasure their memories and rewarding experiences given them in Plainville High School, and be grateful for their achievements.

Officers for the Class of '69 were: Byron Beal, president; Susan Page, vice-president; J. D. Stewart, treasurer; and Becky Kerns, secretary.

Juniors Have Busy Year

Hitting the three-quarter mark on the stairway to success are the members of the 1967-68 junior class. These students have taken an active part in the many activities of PHS.

As they gained entrance into their third year at Plainville High School they found many new experiences and activities. There was the junior play, entitled "Stop the Wedding", the magazine sales, the annual junior senior prom, and the receiving of their class rings.

In the class of '69, the girls dominate the boys in number, with 30 girls and 26 boys, making a total of 56. The junior class sponsors are Mr. Jaco and Mr. Channell.

Next year as seniors, the class of '69 will find many more new experiences and will have to face even more responsibilities, for it will be the busiest year of their high school career.

The class of '70 has now reached the half-way mark in their high school career. They are no longer considered 'greenies', but they are not yet considered upperclassmen.

This year the 67 sophomores (including 35 boys and 32 girls) chose their class rings, and some of them were lucky enough to serve at the junior-sen-ior prom.

Next year the class of '70 will fill a new role as upperclassmen. They will face new challenging and rewarding experiences.

Youngest Class Gets Acquainted

Another freshman class took its place in PHS as the 1967-68 school year opened. The freshman class was again this year the largest class in the school, with 34 boys and 39 girls.

Being full-pledged members of PHS gives the freshmen many varied interests and a completely new routine from that of their past.

There are many outside activities, clubs, and organizations in which the freshmen avidly participated including girl's glee, boy's glee, mixed chorus, FFA, FHA, Pep Club, P-Club, and others.

The class of '71 is now ready to take it's next step towards graduation.

PHS Boosters

These eight girls were chosen as Booster Girls for the 1967-68 school year. They were chosen on the basis of their participation throughout the year in school activities.

Two girls were chosen from each of the classes and their picture and a story about their interests and hobbies was put in the Booster each month. At the end of the year the student body voted on Booster Girl of the Year.

SPORTS

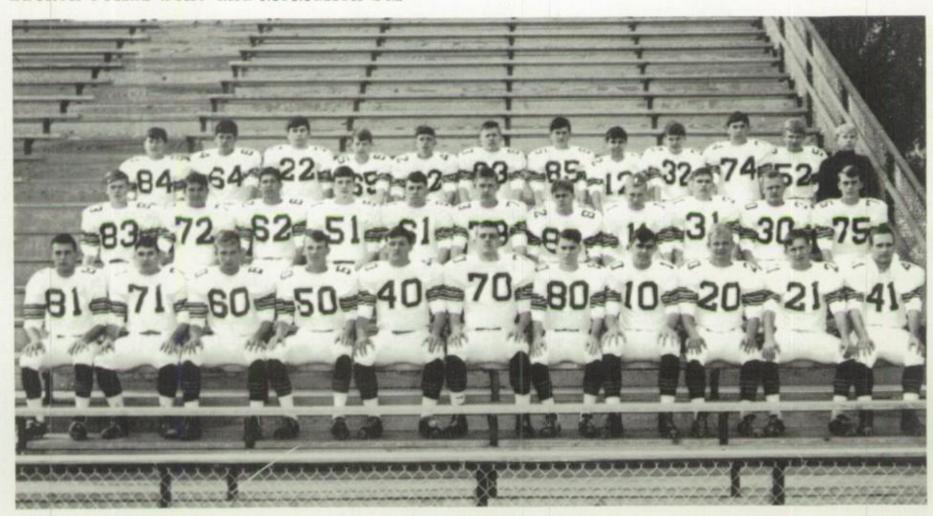

Senior players on the 1967 squad were D. Brungardt, M. Stahl, C. Kelley, S. Beiker, R. Boucher, R. Benedick, M. Rempe, G. Mock, D. Klaus, K. Conway, P. McMullen, S. Bard, D. Ruder, C. Becker and R. High.

Cards End Season With 2-7 Record

The Plainville Cardinal Gridsters had a rough season because of injuries to two of their starters and captains. This allowed Dennis Brungardt and Pat McMullen to play only two complete games together. Brungardt received a broken collar bone and McMullen suffered injuries to his knee.

The school spirit was good, and the team was backed well in spite of their season of two wins and seven losses. The starting team consisted of nine seniors and two juniors.

BACK ROW: E. Dreher, T. Weir, S. Jones, C. Wilson, M. Adams, S. Beiker, R. Vonfeldt, G. Hartnett, T. Turnbull, L. Barber, G. Rempe and M. Girvan. SECOND ROW: J. Lill, D. McMullen, C. Becker, D. Comeau, M. Stahl, D. Klaus, K. Harrison, R.

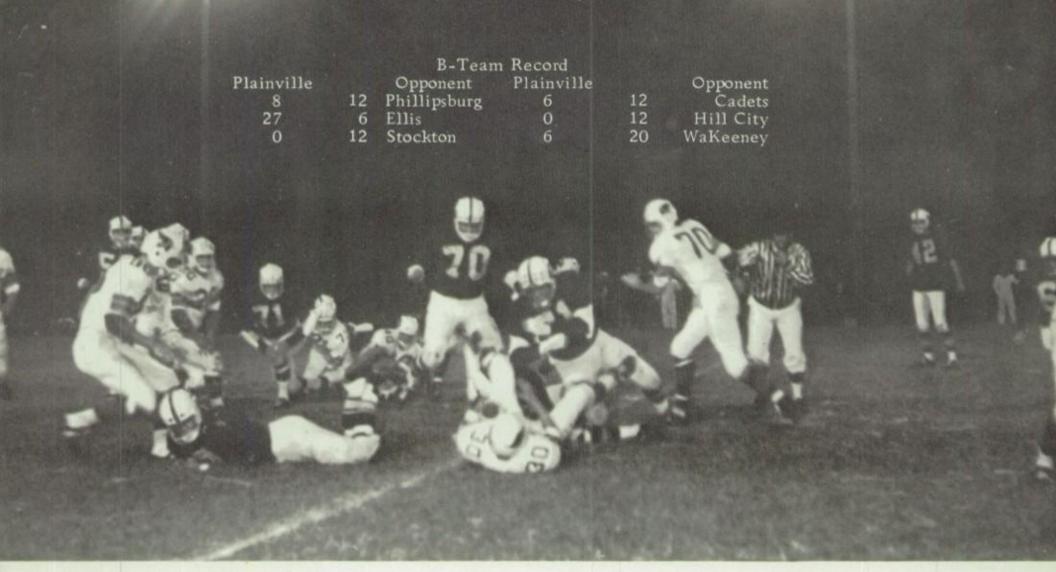

Glick, G. Kelley, D. Brungardt and R. Adams, FRONT ROW: R. Boucher, R. Benedick, M. Rempe, K. Conway, P. McMullen, B. Beal, S. Bard, G. Mock, D. Ruder, R. High and R. Hammerschmidt.

Captains, Coaches Lead PHS Squad

Coaches and captains for the 1967 season were Warren Meireis, Dennis Brungardt, Gordon Ensley, Pat McMullen, Paul Engborg, Rich High and Head Coach John Battitori.

B-Team Finishes Season With 1-5-0 Record

This year's B-Team, not unlike the A-Team, was also hurt by injuries. After their first five games they were minus five starters, which included their two quarterbacks.

Though their offensive team was hurt badly, the young Cards lost no spirit, and they made every opponent play their hardest to win.

There were 27 boys who suited up for B-Team this year, and 18 of these boys suited up for A-Team action.

Mr. Engorg and Mr. Ensley were this years B-Team coaches. Both did a fine job of recruiting unexperienced Freshmen to take the place of the injured upperclassmen.

B-Team for 1967 included, BACK ROW: M. Malin, S. Haslam, S. Braun, R. Brin, R. Welch and R. Hrabe. SECOND ROW: J. Van Dyke, M. Hachmeister, R. Smee, T. Ruder, D. Pederson, R. Stahl, D. Fellhoelter, D. Gilbert, R. Rogers, B. West-husin and D. Finnesy. FRONT ROW: E. Dreher, L. Barber, T. Weir, D. Comeau, C. Wilson, R. Vonfeldt, G. Hartnett, T. Turnbull, G. Rempe, S. Jones and R. Adams.

Vopat for Two

Cards 2nd In Tourney 4th in League

This year's Cardinals cage team finished their regular scheduled games 5-14 over all and a 2-4 league record which placed them in a tie for fourth place.

Although they were seated last in this years league tournament, the Cardinals put together a defensive battle and finished the tournament in 2nd place. During the tournament the Cards lost only to state rated Stockton in a close championship game.

Although it was a trying season, many valuable experiences were gained through competition.

Basketball A-Team members were; Coach Gordon Ensley, Bob Parker, Gary Kelly, Rich High, Steve Bard, Jay Mongeau, Byron Beal, Greg Mock, Jerry Vopat, Kevin Adams, Rick Boucher, Rodger Glick, Dennis Brungardt, and Head Coach Warren Meireis.

The Cardinal matmen had a successful season, winning seven out of eight duel matches and taking first at both the Pratt Invitational and the Mid-Continent League tournaments.

Raymond Smee, Newton Cates and Charlie Becker went undefeated in duel competition this year.

Coached by John Battitori the wrestlers proved to be a very successful PHS athletic team of the 67-68 school year.

After having wrestling at PHS for four years, it has proved to be a very popular spectator sport, with good public attendance at all this year's matches.

1968 Cindermen were Coach Gordon Ensley, Bob Parker, Roger Vonfeldt, Gary Kelly, Tom Weir, Steve Bard, Jerry Vopat, Greg Mock, Byron Beal, Pat McMullen, Kevin Adams, Ron Hammerschmidt, Rodger Glick, Dave Ruder, Dennis Brungardt, and Head Coach Warren Meireis.

Cindermen Have New Track For 68 Season

The 1968 track team had the advantage of a new cinder track, and for the first time at PHS they held two meets at Plainville. A freshman meet in April and a varsity meet in May were the ones held on Plainville's new track.

Coach Warren Meireis had thirteen returning lettermen on the team this year: eight seniors, one junior, and four provisional sophomores composed the returning lettermen.

Track proved to be a more interesting sport this year at Plainville since some of the meets were held on home grounds. This year's team had a full schedule. They competed in nine meets, including some of the larger meets in the state. Coach Meireis was assisted by Coach Gordon Ensley.

Returning lettermen for 1968 were, Raelene Mehler, Paula Van Dyke and Linda High. Mrs. Gae Johnson was coach.

Girls Track Team

Linda High and Paula Van Dyke practice passing the baton for girls' relay.

The 1968 Girl's Track season saw three returning lettermen, one junior and 2 sophomores.

This year the track girls went to three main track meets, one at Phillipsburg, one at Hays, and the last one was held at Wakeeny, which was the League Track Meet.

Mrs. Gae Johnson was this years track coach. After graduating from Emporia State Teachers College she came to PHS as P. E. instructor, as well as Track and Tennis coach.

Three Return

Three lettermen returned for the 1968 tennis season. The girls were under the supervision of Mrs. Gae Johnson.

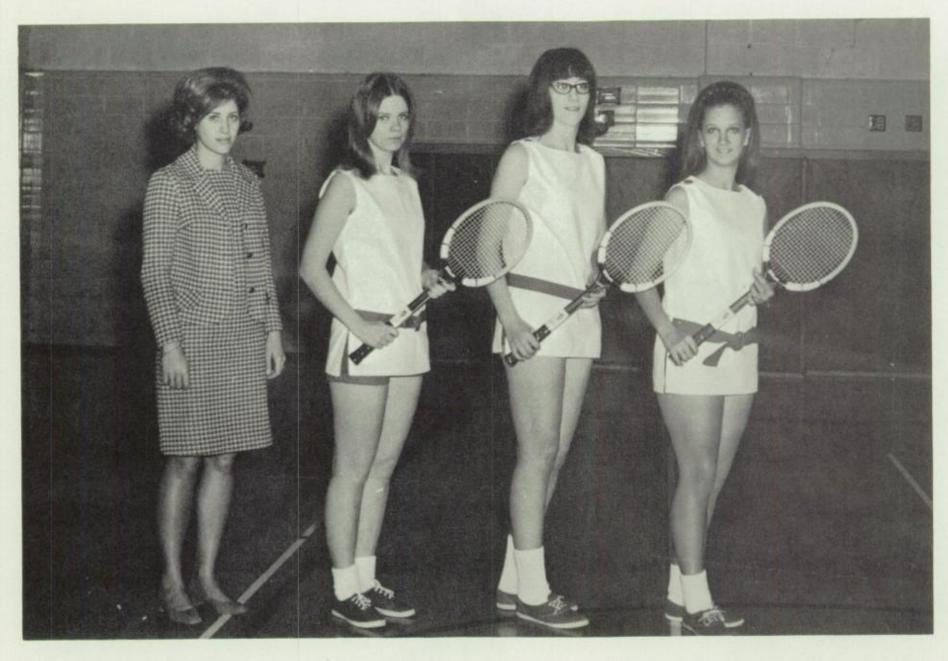

Mrs. Johnson came to P. H. S. this year from Emporia State Teachers College, where she majored in Home Economics and minored in P. E.

The girls practiced each evening from 4 to 7:30 in preparation for tennis meets which were scheduled throughout the spring.

Kayla Hrabe runs for the ball at tennis practice.

PHS Tennis Team

Mrs. Gae Johnson was tennis coach for 1968. Returning lettermen were Pam Rogers, Denise Richmond and Kayla Hrabe, all juniors.

1968 Cardinal Golfers included Coach Lyle Meredith, C. Meitler, J. Lill, D. Klaus, R. Oelschlaeger, R. Boucher, R. High and B. Hulsey.

New Coach For PHS Golfers

Mr. Meredith was the new golf coach at P. H. S. for the 1968 season. He has gained his experience in golf by playing on the varsity squad for two years in college. Mr. Meredith came to P.H.S. from Nickerson High School. He was golf coach there for five years. This year he worked with three returning lettermen. They are Rich High, Rick Boucher and Don Klaus. He also did much to better the ability of the other four players that were new this year. Due to the addition of grass greens at the Rooks County Golf Course the boys went to Palco twice weekly to receive their practice. They also held their matches on Palco's Course.

Returning letterman Rick Boucher practices form.

Afterword

As you turn the closing page of the 1968 Cardinal, you also turn the last page on a school year filled with fond memories. Gone, but not forgotten are the school dances, football games, basketball games, and the fun we had this past year. We must now take another step toward our futures as we finish at P. H. S., or move up a grade higher.

For the yearbook staff, there will be memories of producing this yearbook; the photography, cutting, gluing, writing, typing, and the many other little things too numerous to mention. It is the staff's sincere wish that this yearbook will produce many fond memories for you in the future.
